

Liberal Arts 108 Composition for the Artist

Library Resources: Seek and Find

1. Using one of the library online databases such as Proquest or Wilson Web, locate an article about an artist or topic in your field of interest.

What word or words did you use to search?

What is the title of the article?

2. Using the suggested topics given for the article, locate another article that is of interest to you.

What is the title of the journal or magazine in which this article is located?

3. Using Oxford Reference, look up a word that is difficult for you or which you would like to know more about . (Some examples: denouement, gung ho, chiaroscuro, umber, haute) Write the word and its definition here:

Which Oxford resource did your definition come from?

Please use the word in a sentence.

4. Using the library online catalog, find an autobiography.

5. Whose autobiography is it?

6. Give the location and call number you would use to find this book on the shelf: